287	Aug 6, 2025	ORDER granting in part and denying in part as to the first interrogatories 269 USAP's MOTION to Compel Interrogatory Responses. In the Court's view, Interrogatory Two will be counted as five interrogatories; Interrogatory Three will be counted as five interrogatories; Interrogatory Four will be counted as a single interrogatory with subparts; Interrogatory Five will be counted as two interrogatories with subparts; and Interrogatory Six will be counted as two interrogatories. The FTCs objections to these Interrogatories are overruled. The period for fact discovery has expired and the Court is not of a mind to extend the fact discovery period. However, as it relates to Interrogatories 10, 12, 17 and 18, as far as they raise state or federal law issues, USAP is free to assert such legal arguments to the Court as it deems appropriate.
