		disputes related to the '963 patent remain in this action, and a stay would tactically disadvantage and unduly prejudice Avadel by permitting Jazz to enjoy regulatory exclusivity, which has been contested, without ever having to substantiate the merits of its infringement allegations. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, for the reasons stated on the record, Avadel's request for an additional three hours to depose Jazz's Rule 30(b)(6) witness, Clark Allphin, is granted. For topics 9, 11-13, and 17-21, to the extent that Avadel intends to question the witness about specific experiments or documents, Avadel should identify for Jazz the specific experiments or documents for which it intends to seek testimony at least 72 hours prior to the deposition. However, consistent with the additional instructions given by the Court during yesterday's hearing on the record, Avadel is not expected to identify for Jazz prior to the deposition questions seeking general information about specific topics for example, whether any experiment was conducted on a specific topic. 301	Mar 8, 2023	ORAL ORDER: Avadel's motion for leave to amend its non-infringement contentions is GRANTED. Avadel's final contentions were due on May 6, 2022. D.I. 72 & 97. Avadel "served its amended non-infringement contentions on February 16 2023 ." D.I. 296-1 at 4; D.I. 296 at 2. As a result, Avadel's motion seeks an alteration to a Scheduling Order deadline, which implicates Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(4). Brit. Telecommunications PLC v. IAC/InterActiveCorp, C.A. No. 18-366-WCB, 2020 WL 3047989, at *2 (D. Del. June 8, 2020). Under Rule 16(b)(4), "[a] schedule may be modified only for good cause and with the judge's consent." "The good cause standard hinges on the diligence of the moving party; in order to show good cause, a movant must first meet the threshold requirement that it demonstrate that, despite diligence, the proposed new filing could not have reasonably been made in a timely manner." Vaxel Int'l Co., Ltd v. HealthCo LLC, C.A. No. 20-224-GBW, D.I. 226 (D. Del. June 28, 2022). The Court also considers "the importance of the new information, evidence of gamesmanship in the untimely disclosure, the potential prejudice to the opposing party, and the likelihood of

Entry #	Filing Date	Description
		disruption to the case schedule." Fraunhofer-Gesellschaft Zur Forderung Der Angewandten Forschung e.V. v. Sirius XM Radio Inc., C.A. No. 17-184-JFB-SRF, 2022 WL 608143, at *2 (D. Del. Jan. 27, 2022), report and recommendation adopted and objections overruled, D.I. 563 (May 25, 2022). Here, the Court agrees with Avadel that there is "good cause for the assertion of a non-infringement theory that crystallized only after Jazz served its opening expert reports" because "[u]ntil then, it was not clear that Jazz would accuse sodium oxybate alone of meeting the oxybate limitations." D.I. 296 at 3. After receiving Jazz's opening expert reports on January 17, 2023, D.I. 287, Avadel raised its concerns with Jazz on February 8, D.I. 296-1 at 191-92, and shared its proposed amended non-infringement contentions on February 16, id. at 190. Avadel's amendments appear central to its non-infringement positions and Jazz does not argue gamesmanship. Although Jazz appears to principally complain that responding to Avadel's amendments will require substantial effort that may imperil the trial date, D.I. 298 at 3, any prejudice does not appear incurable. Accordingly, the parties SHALL meet and confer and, no later than March 15, 2023, submit to the Court (a) a stipulated amended Scheduling Order modifying any relevant deadlines necessary for Jazz to address Avadel's amended non-infringement contentions, which modifications shall not disrupt the October 2023 trial date, and (b) the parties shall identify whether the Court must construe "gamma hydroxybutyrate" beyond its plain and ordinary meaning, which is the default in claim construction. Phillips v. AWH Corp., 415 F.3d 1303, 1316 (Fed. Cir. 2005). If the parties are unable to reach agreement on a stipulated amended Scheduling Order or whether "gamma hydroxybutyrate" requires construction, then, on or before March 15, 2023, Jazz shall file a supplemental letter of no more than three (3) pages identifying (a) any dates in the Scheduling Order for which Jazz requests adjustment and (b) its claim construction position on "gamma hydroxybutyrate," including its position on what the plain and ordinary meaning of that term is, if Jazz argues plain and ordinary meaning. Avadel shall file a responsive letter of no more than three (3) pages addressing the same issues no later than March 22, 2022. The teleconference scheduled for March 8, 2023 is CANCELED. 381	Nov 3, 2023	ORAL ORDER: Having considered the parties' respective positions on consolidation of C.A. No. 22-487 (the "trade secret case") with C.A. Nos. 21-691-GBW, 21-1138-GBW, and 21-1594-GBW (the "patent cases") (D.I. 348), IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Avadel's motion for consolidation is DENIED. The mere existence of common issues, a prerequisite to consolidation, does not require consolidation. U.S. v. Dentsply Int'l, Inc.,

Entry #	Filing Date	Description
		190 F.R.D. 140, 143 (D.Del. 1999); Rohm & Haas Co. v. Mobil Oil Corp., 525 F. Supp. 1298, 1309 (D.Del. 1981). Indeed, the Court "must balance the savings of time and effort gained through consolidation against the inconvenience, delay or expense that might result from simultaneous disposition of the separate actions." Rohm & Haas Co., 525 F. Supp. at 1309. Here, the Court finds that any efficiency to be gained by consolidating Jazz's patent cases with Avadel's trade secret misappropriation case is outweighed by the delay that consolidation would cause to Jazz's patent cases, possible overcomplication of issues, and the potential for jury confusion. The patent cases are already consolidated, fact discovery has been completed and expert discovery is nearly complete in them, and trial in those cases is scheduled to begin on February 26, 2024. Under Avadel's proposed consolidated schedule, the trial in the further consolidated case would not begin until October 2024 at the earliest. See D.I. 348 in C.A. No. 21-00691-GBW, Attachment 1 (Avadel's proposed order). Jazz, in its opposition to the request for consolidation, disputes whether an October 2024 trial is realistic given the number of witnesses that will need to be deposed for the trade secrets case, particularly given that many of those witnesses are located overseas. See also Borough of Olyphant v. PPL Corp., 153 Fed. Appx. 80, 82 (3d Cir. 2005) ("it is within a district court's broad discretion to deny a motion to consolidate if it would cause delay in one of the cases."). Also, in the patent cases, Jazz and Avadel are already litigating infringement and invalidity issues involving six patents from two different patent families. See C.A. No. 22-cv-00487-GBW, D.I. 53 at 2. In the trade secrets case, Avadel asserts that Jazz engaged in breach of contract and trade secret misappropriation. Id.; see D.I. 2 in C.A. No. 22-cv-00487-GBW. The Court finds that the patent cases and the trade secrets case do not share enough common issues of law to justify consolidation under the circumstances. One trial to resolve all three disputes would be unwieldy and overly complex because of the number of witnesses, the amount of evidence which would need to be presented on the disparate legal theories and the six patents, and the potential for jury confusion. Accordingly, Avadel's motion for consolidation is denied. ORDERED by Judge Gregory B. Williams on 11/3/23. Associated Cases: 1:21-cv-00691-GBW, 1:21-cv-01138-GBW, 1:21-cv-01594-GBW, 1:22-cv-00487-GBW (ntl) (Entered: 11/03/2023)

531	Feb 7, 2024	ORAL ORDER: The Court has reviewed the parties' letter, D.I. 524, jointly requesting to conduct jury selection on Friday, February 23, 2024 for the trial scheduled to begin on Monday, February 26, 2024. The Court will grant the request in this instance with the modification that the Court will conduct voir dire, jury selection and preliminary jury instructions on Friday, February 23, 2024, beginning at 10:00 am. The Court remains sensitive to the fact and reminds counsel that, although jury service is a civic duty, many employers do not compensate their employees during jury service and extending the length of jury service may increase the financial loss for some jurors. Thus, going forward, counsel should not expect the request granted in this instance or conducting voir dire and selecting the jury on any day other than the first day of trial to become routine. ORDERED by Judge Gregory B. Williams on 2/7/24. Associated Cases: 1:21-cv-00691-GBW, 1:21-cv-01138-GBW, 1:21-cv-01594-GBW (ntl) (Entered: 02/07/2024)

545	Feb 20, 2024	ORAL ORDER: Having reviewed the parties' respective letter briefs, D.I. 543 and D.I. 544 in C.A. No. 21-691, regarding Jazz's motion to limit the use of Rule 30(b)(6) deposition testimony during trial, the Court notes that live testimony is preferable to deposition testimony, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 32(a)(3) is not without any limits, and the Court has some discretion on the issue. Accordingly, under the circumstances of this case, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, if Jazz's Rule 30(b)(6) witness in dispute, is available for live testimony during Avadel's case-in-chief on rebuttal, the Court will allow the use of the video excerpts from the Rule 30(b)(6) depositions for impeachment

		purposes only. In other words, Avadel must question the witness live during Avadel's case-in-chief on rebuttal, if the witness remains available for live testimony. Only if the witness answers a question inconsistent with the prior deposition testimony may Avadel use video excerpts of the prior deposition testimony for impeachment purposes. If the Rule 30(b)(6) witness in dispute is not available for live testimony during Avadel's case-in-chief on rebuttal, then Avadel may use the designated video excerpts in place of questioning the witness live and Jazz may counter-designate. Given the parties' dispute on this issue, Mr. Allphin, in his capacity as a Rule 30(b)(6) witness, shall not be subject to the purported provision in the proposed Pretrial Order that fact witnesses will testify only once. Rather, Mr. Allphin, in his capacity as a Rule 30(b)(6) witness, will be subject to being called by Jazz during its case-in-chief and called subsequently by Avadel during its case-in-chief. The Court's understanding is that the instant dispute concerned Mr. Allphin in his capacity as a Rule 30(b)(6) witness and did not involve any other witnesses. If there are other witnesses for which the same dispute applies, the parties shall advise the Court and the other side in writing by no later than Noon ET on February 21, 2024, and the same rules shall apply to those witnesses unless otherwise determined by the Court. ORDERED by Judge Gregory B. Williams on 2/20/24. Associated Cases: 1:21-cv-00691-GBW, 1:21-cv-01138-GBW, 1:21-cv-01594-GBW (ntl) (Entered: 02/20/2024)

625	May 23, 2024	ORAL ORDER: IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, by no later than fourteen (14) days from the date of this Order, the parties shall file a proposed redacted version of any opinions the Court has issued under seal, along with a motion supported by a declaration that contains a clear, factually detailed explanation as to why disclosure of any proposed redacted material would "work a clearly defined and serious injury to the party seeking closure." See In re Avandia Mktg., Sales Practices & Prods. Liab. Litig., 924 F.3d 662, 672 (3d Cr. 2019) (internal quotations omitted). If the parties do not file a proposed redacted version and corresponding motion by the deadline, or if the court determines the motion lacks a meritorious basis, the opinion[s] will be unsealed in whole or in part. Ordered by Judge Gregory B. Williams on 5/22/2024. (Inb) (Entered: 05/23/2024)

		approval for an idiopathic hypersomnia (IH') indication for LUMRYZ[] prior to the expiration of the '782 patent in light of the Federal Circuit's decision," id. at 1, in Jazz Pharms., Inc. v. Avadel CNS Pharms., LLC, No. 2024-2274, ___ F.4th ___, 2025 WL 1298920 (Fed. Cir. May 6, 2025). IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, on or before July 29, 2025, Defendant Avadel CNS Pharmaceuticals shall file with the Court its answering brief and any supporting papers. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, on or before August 19, 2025, the Jazz Parties may file with the Court a reply brief. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, in accordance with Local Rule 7.1.3, the parties opening and answering briefs shall be no longer than twenty (20) pages and the reply brief shall be no longer than ten (10) pages, in each instance exclusive of any table of contents or table of citations. The Court will schedule an oral argument and/or an evidentiary hearing, if necessary, after considering the parties' briefing. ORDERED by Judge Gregory B. Williams on 5/29/2025. Associated Cases: 1:21-cv-00691-GBW, 1:21-cv-01594-GBW(lnb) (Entered: 05/29/2025)
743	May 29, 2025	ORAL ORDER: Having considered the parties' Joint Status Report (No. 21-691, D.I. 733) and having held a Status Conference to discuss the parties' Joint Status Report, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Avadel CNS Pharmaceuticals LLC's ("Avadel") request for the Court to "enter judgment on the jury verdict" at this time is DENIED. D.I. 733 at 5. To the extent that Avadel requests for judgment to be entered at this time under Rule 54(b), see Intell. Ventures I LLC v. Symantec Corp., No. 10-CV-1067-LPS, 2015 WL 4967134, at *2 (D. Del. June 8, 2015), the Court agrees with Jazz Pharmaceuticals, Inc. and Jazz Pharmaceuticals Ireland Limited that "Avadel's request for entry of partial judgment does not even address, let alone make a showing to satisfy, the requirement for such judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b)." D.I. 733 at 3-4. Since Avadel has not convinced the Court that "there is no just reason for delay," Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b), the Court will not enter judgment under Rule 54(b) at this time. See TexasLDPC Inc. v. Broadcom Inc., No. 1:18-CV-01966-SB, D.I. 721 (D. Del. Mar. 4, 2024). To the extent that Avadel requests for judgment to be entered at this time for reasons other than Rule 54(b), Avadel has "provided insufficient legal support." VoiceAge EVS LLC v. HMD Glob. OY, No. CV 19-1945-GBW, 2025 WL 1397239, at *22 (D. Del. May 14, 2025) (rejecting contention where proponent "provided insufficient legal support"). Thus, the Court will not enter judgment on the jury verdict at this time given the remaining issues pending, and the Court will not modify the briefing schedule for post-trial motions. ORDERED by Judge Gregory B. Williams on 5/29/2025. Associated Cases: 1:21-cv-00691-GBW, 1:21-cv-01594-GBW(lnb) (Entered: 05/29/2025)
